A warrant was issued for the arrest of two negroes, Tompkins and Connor, who had been discharged from the Washington jail on a writ of habeas corpus, while awaiting a requisition from the Governor of Virginia. These negroes were charged with stealing cattle belonging to Messrs. Fitzhugh and Henderson, of Fairfax county.

No cases were before the Mayor this morning.

The Provost Judge gives notice that all persons, white or colored, caught hunting, fishing, or fowling on any lands in the county of Fairfax, and lying within five miles of navigable waters, without a license or permit from the owners of said lands, are liable to be arrested and forfeit their fowling pieces or fishing apparatus, boats, or other means of conveyance to any officer making said arrest, and for the first offence a fine of three dollars for the second six dollars, and for the third nine dollars, and all costs, with imprisonment until the same is paid. The Directors of the Washington Board of Trade have issued a circular to Southern merchants, setting forth the advantages of the Washington market; also petitioning the city government to oppose the running of cars by steam through the city. The latter matter was referred last night, in the Board of Aldermen, to a select committee.

THE TUNIS EMBASSY—A RICH SCENE.—Although much has been written, and every move of the Tunis Embassy noted, and telegraphed far and wide over the country, yet one of the most interesting and noteworthy incidents of their sojourn in Washington has, wonderful to relate, escaped the argus eyes of the newspaper reporters, but has been kindly furnished us by an eye witness, and is too good to be lost.

A distinguished legal gentleman from Virginia was waiting in the anti-room of the War Office, with two clients (also distinguished) to see the Secretary on important business, when the Tunisians entered. The three gentlemen immediately rose to testify their regards for the strangers, and approached them with cries of "Tuny! Tuny!"—whereupon, imagining some ceremony was about being inaugurated, they drew themselves up with great dignity, and in evident ignorance of the programme or the part they were to enact. It was explained, however, in a moment, when the three hospitable gents, embracing the astonished Ambassadors warmly, and lugging them toward the door, finished their salutation in these remarkable words. "O! Tuny! Tuny! let's go take a cock-tail!"

Whether "Tuny" responded, or not, depone saitheth not.

All the officers and men of the Veteran Reserves, who desire to be relieved from service, are to be mustered out forthwith. Most of the officers are opposed to being discharged; but the majority of the rank and file are quite as eagerly in favor of being allowed to return to their customary pursuits.

The negro insurrection in Jamaica is supposed to be of a serious character, from the fact that the English Consul at Havana has applied to the Captain General of Cuba for aid to put the negroes down. Four Spanish war vessels were despatched for that purpose.

Later news from Matamoras states that the Liberals, in front of that city, had been defeated and driven off.
